

EuroCommerce is a leading European business federation and the principal voice for retail and wholesale in Brussels. We are a team of 20 policy and advocacy professionals working on a fascinating and diverse set of issues and projects for retailers and wholesalers.

To strengthen our team and contribute to our sustainability & product policy work, we are currently looking for an

Adviser Food & Sustainability

The job, reporting to the Director Sustainability & Product Policy, includes:

- Support and manage regulatory and policy issues in the field of food information and labelling, nutrition and health, and other sustainability issues of concern to the retail & wholesale sector;
- Monitor and assess key political and policy developments in these areas; write briefings and analyses for members;
- Contribute to and implement advocacy and communications plans and positions on these issues;
- Represent the organisation externally on a number of specific issues: EU institutions, members, and stakeholders;
- Contribute to other work of the Sustainability & Product Policy team.

Your profile:

- 5 years of experience in a relevant role in EU public affairs, preferably in a retail or food company or association, dealing with EU food policy issues;
- University degree in a relevant field and a good understanding of food & nutrition policy and law;
- A sound understanding of the functioning of EU institutions and regulatory process;
- Strong communication skills in written and spoken English; good knowledge of other European languages is an asset;
- Pro-active, dynamic and resourceful team player with demonstrable organisational and interpersonal skills appropriate to a multi-client and multi-stakeholder environment;
- Capability to deliver results on time, adapt swiftly to changing priorities, tasks and needs, ability to effectively manage different projects and issues in parallel.

Please send your application to bastings@eurocommerce.eu by Monday 27 February 2017.