

Biography Régis Degelcke

Régis Degelcke has been elected President of EuroCommerce in June 2018 for a period of three years. Until recently, he was the Chairman of Auchan Retail and Auchan Holding. Before this, his retail career spanned 35 years with Leroy Merlin, the leading international DIY retailer, where he worked as store manager, CFO, country manager in France and Italy, and executive vice-president in charge of international expansion and strategy development. For the last 10 years, he has chaired the European DIY Retail Association (EDRA). Régis has a business degree and an MSc in international finance from ESC Lille School of Management (now SKEMA Business School), which he obtained in 1982. He is married, with three children.

