

EuroCommerce is a leading European business federation and the principal voice for retail and wholesale in Brussels. We are a team of 20 policy and advocacy professionals working on a fascinating and diverse set of issues and projects for retailers and wholesalers.

To strengthen our team and contribute to our sustainability & product policy work, we are currently looking for an

Adviser, Sustainability and Environment

The adviser is part of the product policy and sustainability team, reporting to the director, and providing support to the management of the environment committee and working groups.

The job, reporting to the Director Product Policy & Sustainability, includes:

- Support and manage regulatory and policy issues in the field of Circular Economy, Sustainable Product, Labelling, Due Diligence and other sustainability issues of concern to the retail & wholesale sector;
- Monitor and assess key political and policy developments in these areas; write briefings and analyses for members;
- Contribute to and implement advocacy and communications plans and positions on these issues;
- Represent the organisation externally on a number of specific issues: EU institutions, members, and stakeholders;
- Contribute to other work of the Sustainability & Product Policy team.

Your profile:

- At least a first experience in a relevant role in EU public affairs, preferably in a retail or food company or association, dealing with sustainability issues;
- University degree in a relevant field and a good understanding of environmental and sustainability policy and law;
- A sound understanding of the functioning of EU institutions and regulatory process;
- Strong communication skills in written and spoken English; good knowledge of other European languages is an asset;
- Pro-active, dynamic and resourceful team player with demonstrable organisational and interpersonal skills; Capacity to deliver results on time, adapt swiftly to changing priorities, tasks and needs, ability to manage different projects and issues in parallel.

What we offer

- An exciting and highly varied function interacting with professionals at the highest level from the retail and wholesale sector, the European institutions and other EU associations;
- A dynamic, diverse team of motivated, enthusiastic and professional colleagues;
- An organisation that invests in and stimulates personal and team development;
- A work location at the heart of the European quarter;
- A competitive salary, in line with experience, and including a range of extra-legal advantages

How to apply

Please submit your application letter and CV by 15 April 2022 bastings@eurocommerce.eu